| 29 | ★★ | (2869//4910) The mother of all mint press sheet accumulation lot. Includes several dozen items ranging from 25¢ to 41¢ issues. Quite a few tubes have never been opened offering and in some cases generous duplication. Some usual margin faults, though many are sound. By far the largest presentation we have ever come across. Upon acquisition you become an instant big daddy of this type of thing. | Face 9820.00 |
| 30 | ★★ | (3911//4822f-4823f) Tightly wound press sheet accumulation of over twenty items. Just a couple are duplicates while the rest are one of a kind. | Face 945.00 |
| 31 | ★★/★ | (3205 x106, 3307 x3, 3392 x6, 3535 x21) Wholesale lot of four of the five Looney Tunes die cut sheets, all are VF. Surely these Looney Tunes imperforates are worth more than the discount postage price at which these are offered. | Face 430.00 |
| 32 | ★★ | (906) 5¢ Chinese Resistance issue. Complete sheets of 50, F-VF. | Cat. 206.00 |
| 33 | ★★/★ | All the mint US (post 1940) found in a Minnesota estate. Runs 1940-2017 with many accumulated sheets. The heirs attempted a full count of face: $1,725.00 in Forever values, $2,490.00 in sheets and booklets, and $375.00 in scrap where it became confusing to them leaving at least two full boxes of plate blocks, coil pairs, nondenominated, etc., uncounted. When checked we found at least $4,600 in carefully counted face which when added to the uncounted boxes should be nearer to at least $5,000.00 in total. We helped them remove the decimals, coils and others, leaving only useable and collectable face. Lots of variety especially from the 29 cent commemoratives through the Forever's. Perfect for the collector and discount postage user. Recount it if you must. | Face 4600.00 |
| 34 | ★★ | Carefully counted mint useable US postage in a small carton separated into two boxes. The first is filled with complete unexploded booklets mainly from the 22 cent through the 39 cent era. There are hundreds with a face count of $2,037.00. The second is groups of 100 sorted by denomination into glassines from the same era mainly in blocks of four and plate blocks with a total face count of $1,466.00. Total face is just over $3,500.00. Compact, concentrated group. Pull out the premium and use the rest as discount postage. Everything is mailable with many peel and stick ready to go. | Face 3500.00 |
| 35 | ★★/★ | "I went to the post office" hoard of relatively modern sheets 13 cents up through "forever" values housed in three binders in plastic sleeves. Mainly sheets, year sets and government sets. Hard to count without removing them from their parking places, but the count looks close to us. Recount if you must. | Owner's Face 2540.00 |
| 36 | ★ | A postage potpourri. Mainly scrap and a few sheets from the 1930's to the 1980's from the Kansas City caves, the postal commemorative society and a delicate attempt at a plate block collection on White Ace pages. | Face 2150.00 |
| 37 | ★★/★ | Tight, compact, accurately counted useable postage filling one small pizza size box. Verified face of $1,689.00 in mint modern sheets plus $401.00 in coil strips on eight manila stockpages. Light duplication in the commemorative sheets, while extensive in the coils. Total face $2,090.00. Remove the premium and use the rest and save on shipping with this space saving postage lot. | Face 2090.00 |
| 38 | ★★ | Two bulky cartons stuffed with mint sheets and some scrap. Pen, paper, and patience will be required. | S.B. 1700.00 |
| 39 | ★★ | A glob of postage. Includes sheets, booklets, booklet panes, coil rolls, and scrap. Most of the value is 22¢ to 37¢ values. | S.B. 1450.00 |
| 40 | ★★ | A slurry of sheets and booklet panes. All Forever issues. | Face 1100.00 |
| 41 | ★★/★ | All the face out of a small consignment. Goes from 3 cents to 22 cents in sheets, plate blocks and strips, and scrap. Residing in three old fashioned sheet folder books, five collection like binders, and a manila stockbook. Our quick count of around $1,100.00 is probably close, but the mounts and plastic pages may make extraction deliberate. Count it up and get a bargain. | Face 1100.00 |
| 42 | ★★ | Two bulbous heavy cartons stuffed with mostly 32¢ to 44¢ sheets still in USPS wrapping. | S.B. 1000.00 |
| 43 | ★★ | An assembly of high face value postage. | Face 818.00 |
| 44 | ★★ | A heavy carton filled 1970's-1990's USPS year sets and presentation books. Some have never been opened. Also in includes loose scrap postage that we didn't want to count so you should. | S.B. 290.00 |
| 45 | ★★ | A prickly pile of potpourri scrap Forever value postage. | S.B. 200.00 |

- 224 ○/★ An impressive old time mostly used collection that hasn't seen the light of day for over 50 years. We left this astounding group intact as received as directed by the owners. Virtually complete regular issues and commemoratives up to 1960 minus the absolute scarce items. There is just a tad bit of airmails and Back of the Book. Condition is quite mixed as collectors of the olden times were not as quality conscious as today. However there is a ton a real catalog value. What is mint appears to be stuck down, however the used offers the opportunity to be cleaned up. Giving the used a bath and then moving them to a new album and viola, you have a very nice collection. S.B. 2400.00

- 233 ★/O Oddest collection we have seen in a long time. No book or album, instead: the remains of twelve file drawers of unused #10 mailing envelopes that were at one time organized in Scott catalog order. The envelopes have used, mint, unused ng, mixed mint and used, or absolutely nothing inside. There are no valuable US stamps included, but much face value in the scrap. Thousands of envelopes, hundreds of stamps. Our estimate of at least $900.00 face is just a guess. Could be more (likely), could be less (unlikely). Runs from 1847 to 2017, not much before 1975. What face there is could probably fit in a small pizza size box, while the rest takes up the space of seven large, fairly heavy cartons. Will take a while to break down. A gambler's lot for sure. S.B. 800.00
