

Welcome to the Second Session of the 453rd Public Auction

Welcome to our 453rd Public Auction. This promises to be one of the four best auctions of the year. Seriously, we are fortunate to come back with another strong sale with over a hundred consignors highlighted by a U.S. collection out of NW Wisconsin, 72 years in the making. The consignor was dedicated from the beginning indicating he purchased his first zeppelin stamp when he was 14 years old. He managed to acquire a very scarce unused #1 corner block of four, as well as many other hard to find items. The U.S. also contains several other desirable lots in collections/accumulations, postage, and singles. The rest of the auction has more multi box lots than we have had in several auctions, just in time to keep anyone occupied on cold winter nights. The worldwide offerings are numerous with the British, especially the Canada, not to be missed. Plus, strong Germany and Areas, Austria, Belgium, France and Colonies, Iceland, Sweden, Middle East, and an early Chile holding that will knock your socks off. Our ever-popular miscellaneous section is most notable for a document signed by both Thomas Jefferson and James Madison. I would be remiss if I didn't mention that we have happily hired a new person to help us here in our 90th year of business. Her name is Pam, and if you call us, she will most likely be the one on the other end of the line. She is instrumental in running the office and constructing the online catalog. She was very proud to inform us that we have almost 11,000 scans for this sale. She is very detailed orientated which helps us provide all our customers with the high-quality service we strive for.
