

Welcome to the First Session of the 461st Public Auction

Welcome to our final auction of 2024. The market appears to have stabilized after dropping when the “Covid effect” wore off. We are seeing this for both auctions and stamp shows. Revisiting our shipping methods have been paying dividends. We have been able to cut costs for many of our customers, the savings are averaging between 25% to 50%.

This auction, in terms of the number of lots, is the biggest of the year. Highlights include the third installment of the Red Bird Estate. There are more numerous than normal less expensive stamp collections. Notables to mention are the collections of British, Germany and Area plus the United States. You will also find nice United States, China, Germany and British singles. Lastly please take note of the many cover lots along with the picture postcard groups.

From our family to yours have a very happy Holiday season. See you in 2025.

Delays may accrue due to credit card fee transfers, check deposit subject to collection and the like. Receipt of a non-certified funds check shall not be construed as payment until funds are fully vested in Rasdale Stamp Company.

COLLECTIONS, ACCUMULATIONS
AND STOCKS

The Product of an Independent Thinker. One hundred twenty years of U.S. philatelic treasures mounted onto cutdown Harris pages and packed into one bulging American Heirloom binder, 1847 to the late 1960s. Mostly mint, with only a few used. Over many years, the collector bought what he loved most in the U.S. philatelic scene and organized his stamps in the way that pleased him, all with memorable results. On the one hand, there is much to admire in this collection. We found page after page of singles, pairs, and printing oddities from the classic era, with many items having certificates. The list of highlights is huge and begins with Scott #1 and includes most of the early imperforates, numerous nineteenth and early twentieth-century regulars, the complete Columbian Exposition Issue, the complete Trans-Mississippi Exposition Issue, thorough coverage of popular early commemorative singles and sets, and long streaks of Washington-Franklins. The BOB shines especially brightly in this holding and features C1-6, the Graf Zeppelin Issue, the Baby Zeppelin, Parcel Post stamps, Special Delivery stamps, Hunting Permit stamps, Confederate States stamps, Official Mail stamps, Newspaper and Periodical stamps, Revenue stamps, Proprietary stamps, Documentary stamps, and Stock Transfer stamps. The overall total Scott catalog value is enormous. On the other hand, the collection is not without challenges and drawbacks. Occasionally, the arrangement of the stamps is haphazard, and the pages are overloaded and difficult to turn. Also, some items are in the wrong spaces. Finally, although the collection contains overwhelmingly attractive and collectable material, the nineteenth-century section is replete with evidence of missing gum, regumming, possible removed cancels, and reperfoming. In close, this lot is worth a long, careful viewing by a similarly independent thinker who can see through any imperfections and recognize its desirability and potential use. S.B. 12000.00

We found singles, pairs, coil pairs, line pairs, blocks of four, plate blocks, FDCs, commercial covers, and more. The consignor also included printing varieties, freaks, etc. with explanation and occasional certificates. Interspersed with all the philatelic material are excerpts from reference works, magazines, and newspapers as well as notations, markings, and bare-bones inventory sheets by the consignor.
