

Welcome to the Second Session of the 461st Public Auction

Welcome to our final auction of 2024. The market appears to have stabilized after dropping when the “Covid effect” wore off. We are seeing this for both auctions and stamp shows. Revisiting our shipping methods have been paying dividends. We have been able to cut costs for many of our customers, the savings are averaging between 25% to 50%.

This auction, in terms of the number of lots, is the biggest of the year. Highlights include the third installment of the Red Bird Estate. There are more numerous than normal less expensive stamp collections. Notables to mention are the collections of British, Germany and Area plus the United States. You will also find nice United States, China, Germany and British singles. Lastly please take note of the many cover lots along with the picture postcard groups.

From our family to yours have a very happy Holiday season. See you in 2025.
