

Welcome to the Second Session of the 464th Public Auction

Welcome to our 464th Auction. We, here at Rasdale's, have been very busy writing up lots from several different estates. Right off you will notice nearly 100 US collections, many offered by a narrow time frame of specific issue. They run from $50.00 in value to over $10,000.00. Next are the numerous country lots with strong selections of Latin America, Australian States, French Colonies and Canada. Not to be overlooked are the many lots from smaller, not as often seen countries. The collection sizes range from one page to multiple boxes on pallets. The cover section contains over 160 lots which is highlighted by the U.S. originally belonging to a beloved, long retired dealer out of Indiana. While the singles and sets section is not as numerous as the past couple auctions there are still many items of interest, especially in the U.S. and Canada. The standouts in the always fun miscellaneous collectable section include Beatles autographs, a 1933 Babe Ruth card and the first installment of Worldfair's items. The auction is the weekend before the APS's GASS show in Schaumburg. If attending the show, we welcome anyone to make arrangements to possibly pick up their lots at the show. (Sales tax will apply if not exempt). Enjoy the summer but always keep on stamping.
